Assignment #7 (due December 11th) – Revision of Essay on “China in Ten Words” (5%):
Students will have the opportunity to reflect on how far they have come in developing their critical thinking and writing skills by revising their Summer Reading Essay on the Required Summer Reading, “China in Ten Words.”

The assignment requires you to hand in two items together:

1. The revision of the summer essay.

2. A coverletter that describes what you changed, and why and how you made those changes. This is a wonderful opportunity to reflect on how your writing and argumentation may have changed over the course of the semester, and to identify areas in which you have (or have not) made some progress.

The revision and coverletter are both due together to the instructor NO LATER THAN the end of our designated Final Examination time, at 10:50am on Thursday, December 11, 2014.

Your essay (and all FYS writing assignments) should be typed, double-spaced on standard-sized paper (8.5” x 11”) with 1” margins on all sides. Please use an easily readable 12 pt. font (Times New Roman, Garamond, etc.).

Remember that, as NOTE #2 in our syllabus suggests, assignments are due at the beginning of class on the due date. Any missed assignment is subject to an automatic failing grade for the course (in other words, you cannot pass the class unless you do all of the work!). Late written assignments will be graded down up to one full letter grade for each day late. A paper handed in five minutes after the deadline is considered a full day late.
